A Totally spies fanfic

This is an unofficial fanfic and therefore is not endorsed or supported by Marathon (Totally spies).

Also in terms of Totally spies it is set during Season three.

Prologue

J prise office, New York, USA

A worker was on his nightshift sorting out finances when he hears a knock on the door.

Worker: I will go and see who that is.

The worker goes to the door and opens it; he has been duped, as a seductive woman snuck in while he was looking around. She pours a chemical into the worker's coffee and then escapes via the window. As the worker returns to the room he notices the window open.

Worker: That's funny, I'm sure I closed the window

He closes the window and goes back to his desk. He drinks the coffee and resumes work. Unaware to him that a symbol is glowing on his back.

Introduction

Beverly Hills, USA

The girls' villa

Sam: Rise and shine everyone!

Clover and Alex, who were asleep in their beds, were woken up to Sam's shouting. Leaving their rooms it became known to Sam that they were half asleep.

Alex: Sam... its 6 o clock in the morning!

Sam: I know but as soon as you are ready you got chores to do!

Clover: Chores?

Sam: Yes... From 2 days ago. Like what happened last time.

Alex: Yes, but we never got around to finishing them last time because of Tim scam's assassin remember?

Clover: And not to mention that you had chores as well!

Sam: Well this time, I don't

Clover: So now you are being a control freak like before just for the fun of it

Sam: No, I'm just want to get these chores done now and then we can go to the mall together, work first play later.

Clover: Well, I still think you're a control freak for waking us up at 6 o'clock in the morning!

Alex: Could be worse, it could have been 4.

Suddenly three holes appear under their feet as they are WOHPed

Sam: Just to let you know girls, this is the only thing that I don't control!

Briefing

WOHP headquarters, Colorado, USA

The girls fall onto the settee inside the briefing room, Jerry was sitting behind his desk as usual.

Alex: No Sam that is controlled by Jerry, which makes me wonder...

Jerry: Ah, well you can wonder later

Jerry presses a button to reveal a medical report on the monitor

Jerry: This unusual medical report was filed an hour ago in a New York hospital.

Alex: What's so unusual about it.

Jerry: The report shows that a glowing symbol was reported on the patient's back. We want you to go undercover and obtain analysis on the marking. We file the necessary details to get you there as usual.

Sam: There doesn't seem to be much to this.

Jerry: Indeed, but as the patient hasn't show any side effects then I can only assume so form of tracking has been planted.

Clover: Well, it's a good thing it's a small task because we have to do SAM'S CHORES.

Sam: It's just to keep order around the villa and besides we can take the rest of the day off after, if we don't get interrupted that is.

Alex: Whoa...which side of the bed did you fall out of Sam?

Jerry presses a button on the desk, and the girls are transported to the gadget room. The nano-converters change their costumes into their spy outfits.

Jerry: For this mission, you will have the wristband grapple gun.

GLADIUS gives the gadget to Sam.

Jerry: Clover, you have the Microbug launcher.

GLADIUS hands over the gadget to Clover. She takes the launcher and poses like a bond girl.

Jerry: The darts inside contain small tracking bugs, which can be traced with your X-powder.

Clover: Aww... no fun having darts that don't give that oomph!

Alex: You mean Woohp!

Sam, Clover and Jerry look dismayed at Alex's joke.

Jerry: And, back by popular demand, the irritation spray.

GLADIUS hands over the gadget to Alex.

Jerry: Thanks to your testing, we know that it can remove many mental handicaps as well as stunning enemies in body and mind.

Alex: Hopefully I remember how to operate it.

Alex presses the spray at her face twice, releasing the stun spray at her. She yelps as it irritates her skin.

Jerry: Glad you do. Ta Ta girls, don't work hard!

They are taken to the end of the gadget room and are catapulted, they are now deployed.

Investigation

New York hospital, USA

The girls arrive disguised as nurses. They arrive at reception.

Sam: Good morning, we are here to check up on Mr Felds.

Receptionist: Let me just check...

The receptionist checks the records. Clover whispers to Sam.

Clover: So much for a quick mission, this will take ages!

Sam: No it won't, as soon as we know where Mr Felds is and done the analysis we will be out before you know it.

The receptionist looks at the girls

Receptionist: Ah, here we are, room 3,bed 4.

Sam: See!

Alex: Lets just go before anyone notices.

The girls make their way to Mr Felds bed

Sam: Mr Felds, we are here for your check-up, if you would like to take your top off.

Alex: Now, were talking!

Sam (Whispering): Alex! Don't mess our cover up!

Mr Felds stands up and takes off his top. The girls see a glowing green symbol, shaped as a cat's head.

Sam: Hmm... This is interesting; I will need to take a sample of this.

Sam uses her X-power to scan the symbol off.

Sam: There, we will take this in for analysis.

Mr Felds: Anything else you need?

Clover: Well, you could ask how you got this weird looking tattoo in the first place.

Mr Felds: Well I was at work on my night shift as usual when I heard a knock at the door, I went out to find out what it is. No one was there, so I returned back to my office. Next morning, my wife tells me I got this strange symbol on my back. I could not be able to remove it so I went here.

Clover: Thanks, this evidence could come in handy should something suspicious turns up.

With that the girls leave

Sam: We will send this symbol to Jerry and go back home.

Clover: Yes, to do your CHORES!

While the analysis took place...

Beverly Hills, USA

The girls' villa

Sam: OK, Clover you clean the top, Alex you clean the bottom.

Clover: And let me guess, you are going to lounge around in the pool.

Sam: No, I am going to clean up outside.

The girls clean up the villa as planned. It was a chore for them but the villa was starting to look clean. Clover goes down to Alex after cleaning her part.

Clover: Phew... I'm beat after that

Alex: Me too, I hope Sam is keeping her end of the job.

Sam was outside cleaning up leaves when she noticed a plant was knocked over by the villa.

Sam: That's funny; I thought I tidied up the plants.

She goes over to the plant. As she puts it back up, she notices her shadow was covered up.

Sam: Huh?

She stands up to find a mysterious woman looking at her. She has medium brown hair and deep brown eyes; she had red lips and a small spot on the bottom right by her lips. She wore a leopard skin top concealed by her black jacket and trousers. She wore a beautiful necklace with rows of diamonds, lots of beautiful rings and red nails. She wore black shoes and looked very sexy. She was holding a gold pendent shaped like a cat's head.

Sam: Who are you?

The woman holds the pendent in front of Sam's eyes.

Romera: Look deep into the pendent...

The pendent begins to glow. Sam looks into the pendent and starts to get sleepy.

Romera: ...and become my slave.

Sam falls into a hypnotic trance. Her eyes open, glazed over.

Romera: Obey me!

Sam (monotone): I will obey

Romera: Good, now follow me...

Sam follows Romera and they both leave the Villa. Meanwhile...

Clover: I wonder what's taking Sam so long?

Clover's X-powder bleeps. She opens it and Jerry appears on the projector.

Jerry: Girls, We completed the analysis on the symbol and... where's Sam?

Clover: She is doing her chores.

Alex: I will get her

Alex leaves

Jerry: Very well, the symbol is linked to a renowned Catburglar known as Romera Blens.

The projector shows Romera on the projector.

Clover: What's this got to do with the symbol?

The projector switches back to live feed

Jerry: We are unsure at the moment but she recently tried to steal a prized figurine in China. She tried to manipulate people there too.

Alex rushes in

Alex: Clover, Sam's gone!

Just then, WOOHP headquarters receives an alert. Jerry checks the alert.

Jerry: A break in has just occurred in the J Prize Main office in New York.

Clover: That's the home to a renowned jewellery company. Were on our way, Jerry.

Main phase

J prize office, New York, USA

Clover and Alex arrive via their car at the office. They see no damage at the front door. They saw a small hole on the 40th floor.

Alex: It looks like the criminal didn't hear of a front door.

Clover: Its too high for rappelling so we will have to go in and use the stairs.

Alex: Not again, my feet was killing last time. Not to mention nearly getting killed in a lift.

Clover: Don't remind me.

Clover and Alex runs inside and up the stairs to the 40th floor.

Clover: Split up and check each room.

Alex: OK

They start to check each room; along the hallway Alex overhears a conversation and call Clover over to her.

Romera: Hmm... Electronically coded safe... shouldn't be a problem. Check the door and see that nobody is outside, if there is, kill them.

Clover and Alex hide as the door opens. A hypnotized Sam walks into the hallway watching the corridor. Gullible as ever, Alex leaps out.

Alex: Sam, its you, were we worried you were captured!

Sam (monotone): Intruder!

Sam thrusts Alex away. Romera realizes that his slave has raised the alarm and runs out. Clover leaps out from her hiding spot.

Clover: Sam, what are you doing!

Sam kicks clover to the floor, Romera appears alongside Sam and orders her to stop.

Romera: Sam's not here, rather, she is away with the fairies.

Alex: Don't tell me, you hypnotized her.

Romera: Hmm, you are cleverer than I thought...

Alex blushes

Romera: But you won't stop me, Romera Blens. From performing this recuperating robbery!

Clover: How can you be recuperating and robbing at the same time?

Romera: I am known to be the greatest catburgler the world has ever known, with tools, hypnosis, martial arts, magic and not to mention charm. I could have swiped anything, if not for that Bruce Lee wannabe and his female rival. That Golden Lotus should have been mine!

Clover: OK, you need to calm down because you are suffering from GOS.

Romera: GOS?

Clover: Gem obsession syndrome!

Romera: Enough! I am through with such stupidity. I thought this would be the perfect theft, mark someone with a potion then hypnotise someone to get whatever the marked target holds. And this hold amongst cash, the most exotic jewellery known. Think of the possibilities I could do with them.

Alex: You mean apart from sell them cos that's kind of what every criminal does.

Romera: You don't think I just take for profit do you. Oh well, I might as well leave you to my slave. (To Sam) Deal with them, and then kill yourself!

As Romera runs out...

Clover: Oh no you don't!

Clover fires a dart from bug launcher as Romera runs off. Meanwhile Alex stands up and fights Sam.

Alex: Sam! Snap out of it!

Its no use as Sam attacks her, as Alex counters her she suddenly has a brainwave...She pulls out her irritation spray. She kicks Sam sending her on the floor. Alex runs to her and sprays the irritation spray on her, freeing Sam from the hypnotic spell.

Sam: Huh? What happened?

Alex: It's a long story! Lets just say it was a bad case of deja vu

Clover: Glad to have you back Sam.

Alex: The only problem is Romera got away.

Sam: Romera?

Alex: She planted that symbol on that man's back, remember?

Sam: Oh yes, I remember now, so it was her behind this.

Clover: Yes, she hypnotized you to steal from this building for her gain. The thing that is bothering me is, why that man was part of the plot. Unless...

Alex: That was the person she marked. Which means we stopped her plan...

Sam: Only problem is, she is escaping and we don't know where.

Clover: Leave that to me...

Clover pulls out her X-powder revealing the location of the bug she planted on Romera.

Sam: Good thinking Clover

Clover: According to this she is heading to the docks.

Sam: Lets head her off then.

Ambush

New York docks,USA

The girls hide inside a crate, waiting for Romera

Clover: Sam, when you decide on where to hide, try not to choose fish crates as hiding places! I am going to need a shower after this because of this fish smell!

Sam: Quiet! Here she comes.

Romera runs into the docks,searching for a boat to escape in.

Sam: On my signal, i will use by grapple band on that crane and crash into her. Once she is down, Alex will stun her with the irritation spray. Clover will cover both of us should she try to escape.

The girls understand there orders.

Sam: Ready, NOW!

Sam shoots her grapple from her grapple band at a the crane (remember she wasn't wearing her spy costume since she was hypnotized) She rappels half way and then swings at Romera, knocking her down. Alex leaps out of her hiding position and runs up to Romera and uses her irritation spray on her, stunning Romera.

Alex:Quick and painless.

Sam: Well, after what happened today, couldn't say it any better.

Apprehend

New York docks,USA

A WOOHP van is parked outside as Romera is taken into custody. Her head was low, knowing full well she had been defeated.

Sam: I have to admit, at least she knew when she was defeated.

Alex:Yeah, its a change for once. Most villains we face seem to have this uncanny sense of revenge.

Clover: No to mention her fashion sense, if she wasn't stealing stuff all the time we could have been friends.

Hearing the conversation, Romera smiles to herself.

Epilogue

Beverly Hills, USA
The girls' villa

Sam was finishing off her chores in the night. Clover and Alex approaches her.

Clover: Sam, why are you still outside? You need to get some rest.

Sam: I know, i just going to finish placing the plants back after that incident (yawns)and then get some shut-eye.

Clover: You don't need to do that, besides it wasn't your fault. We will do it together tomorrow okay?

Sam: But its my chore?

Clover:It's our chore, Sam. I know we have to keep order round the villa but when it comes to friendship, it's umm...

Alex: Like the back of our hands?

Clover: Yes, like that.

Sam: OK, We will do it tomorrow.
